

PTU Mobilization Plan: Phase 1

Action	Date of Action	Organized by...	Details	Considerations
Enjoy Your Meal!	Ongoing	Delegates at Schools and Centres	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers are encouraged to actually take their lunch break instead of working through it. Teacher are encouraged to leave the building when desirable, and have lunch with their teaching colleagues. Remediation outside of workload is always discouraged, but left to each professional teacher to decide what is best for them. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Assigned workload duties that fall within the student lunchtime should still be respected.
Work Overload! (Local)	As chosen locally	Delegates at Schools and Centres	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers meet in small groups (3 or 4) in a public place outside of work hours to do corrections or prepare lessons.
Work Overload! (Collective)	Last Monday of each month at 7:30 PM at LBPSB Head Office	PTU Executive	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers are encouraged to join the PTU President during the monthly Commissioners meeting. Teachers are encouraged to bring marking and prepare lessons during the start of the meeting (up to the end of question period). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Bring something sturdy to write on (no desks are provided).
Be Seen! (Local)	As chosen locally	Delegates at Schools and Centres	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers are encouraged to organize small demonstrations outside of their schools and centres before or after school. Flags, posters and handouts from QPAT are available on request. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> These demonstrations should occur off of school property, and may require coordination with police for very large groups. Teachers should not be demonstrating during assigned work tasks, and should not be preventing other people access to buildings (no picket line).

Blood Drives	Ongoing	PTU Office	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Any Hema-Quebec blood drives will be publicized through PTU's Facebook Account. Teachers are encouraged to give blood wearing their mobilization T-shirts and to send pictures to the PTU office to post.
Be Seen! (Collective)	February 5. From 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM at PACC	PTU Office	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers will be demonstrating outside of the LBPSB Region 3 Job Fair to inform prospective teachers about working conditions. Flags, posters and handouts from QPAT are available on request. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This demonstration should occur off of school property, and may require coordination with police for very large groups. Teachers should not be demonstrating during assigned work tasks, and should not be preventing other people access to buildings (no picket line).
Be Seen! (Collective)	February 26. From 4:30 PM to 6:30 PM	PTU Office	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers are encouraged to meet outside the Verdun metro station and the Dorval, Beaconsfield, Pierrefonds/Roxboro and Vaudreuil train stations to hand out information and have conversations with the general public about teachers' working conditions. Two members of the Executive Committee will be coordinating at each station. If successful, action will be repeated monthly.
Work Overload! (Collective)	March 21 From 11:45 AM to 12:30 PM at Fairview	PTU Office	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Teachers meet in large group in the Fairview food court to have lunch and to do corrections or prepare lessons. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We will need to be paying customers to avoid loitering. This will be a commando action, so we will probably be asked to leave, to which we will comply. Date is subject to change.
